

DIJON 2010 IXTH INTERNATIONAL HISTORICAL EUROPEAN MARTIAL ARTS GATHERING

MAY 6-9, DIJON

- Registration Form -

Please carefully read the entire document.

Warning on safety and required equipment :

Delegates must ensure they possess the necessary equipment to take part in the many proposed events :

- Clothing and sport shoes adapted to indoor and outdoor use (separate pairs of shoes for each use).
- Wood, plastics or metal training weapons (no sharp weapon or decoration weapon; only weapons of the same type shall be used by training partners – ie metal vs. metal, wood vs. wood) adapted to the workshops (dagger, short sword, long sword, etc..).
- Protective gear are obviously highly recommended (fencing mask, groin guard, gloves, etc..).

Organizers will not provide any training weapon or protective equipment.

All unsafe or uncautious behaviour will immediatly result in the exclusion of the perpetrator from the entire event and bonus activities – without refund.

All Instructors will be entitled to judge of such behaviours and take the necessary sanctions.

Important : Several workshops will be aimed at advanced HEMA practitionners. Instructors will have the possibility to exclude from their workshops people not showing the required level of advancement and understanding of HEMA, without any possible protest.

Information on the fee :

The tuition fee we ask you will vary according to your dates of arrival and departure. If for instance your departure takes place on the Monday following the event, an extra night will be charged. The basic (minimal) price for the Dijon 2010 event has been set for an arrival on Wednesday May 5th, and departure on Sunday May 9th in the afternoon, at 160 Euros per person, plus 25 Euros per extra night. This offer is only available to participants registering before April 4th 2010.

The fee DOES include (depending on availability) accomodation in youth hostels, students rooms or hotels, between Wednesday, May 5th and Sunday, May 9th (plus a possible extra night, Sunday to Monday). It also includes the dinner on Saturday night as well as all other bonuses, gifts and all the things we offer to those attending the Dijon 2010 event.

Special pricing are proposed to specific registration cases (instructors, people in specific financial situations). In case you think you can benefit from a special pricing, please email us.

In case of cancellation, either of the event or your attendance : there will be no refund.
